

U.S. CONSULATE GENERAL LEIPZIG

INFORMATION PRODUCTS

- Amerika Dienst – U.S. Policy Texts in German (Berlin)
This electronic publication offers German-language translations of key USG policy documents, speeches by Embassy officials, and other texts. Available via e-mail subscription or at <http://www.usembassy.de/amerikadienst/>
- Info Alert (Berlin)
formerly called Article Alert, monthly thematic digests from U.S. periodicals. Available via e-mail subscription: ircleipzig@state.gov
- Mailing Lists (Berlin)
The U.S. Mission to Germany's USINFO-DE listserv provides USG policy statements and background documents to over 1,400 subscribers in Germany. The general public may subscribe to this service at <http://www.usembassy.de/mail>
- Policy Background (Berlin)
Highlights current developments and links to subject pages in the fields of foreign relations, the economy, social policy and global issues. Update alerts available via e-mail. Website: <http://www.usembassy.de/policy>
- Washington File (Washington)
The Washington File has published official texts and transcripts of U.S. foreign policy statements and other policy-related materials to U.S. missions since 1935. The File provides the verbatim text of USG policy statements and documents. Available via e-mail subscription or at <http://usinfo.state.gov/usinfo/products/washfile.html>
- Foreign Media Reaction (Washington)
Each business day, the Department of State's Office of Research produces an "Issue Focus" of foreign media commentary on a single foreign policy issue. These reports provide a global round up of editorial and op-ed commentary on the issue from major media around the world. Available at <http://usinfo.state.gov/products/medreac.htm>
- Website (German mission homepage team)
The U.S. Diplomatic Mission to Germany web site is the principal platform for public affairs information products. This includes products designed for both general and targeted German audiences as well as internal U.S. government offices. <http://www.usembassy.de>